Halloween Special: A Spirit Photo

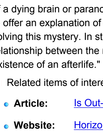
(October 30, 2005) Near-Death



In the spirit of Halloween (pun intended), I found a photograph on the Internet which is the best "ghost" photo I have ever seen. A teen was murdered in his home and his mother was so despondent that she put her home on the market for sale and moved into an apartment. In the process of selling her home, she took a number of photographs of the interior of her home. When she received the developed photographs, she looked through them all to see how they turned out. When she came across one particular photograph, however, what she saw shocked her so much that she ... [Read more here]

Out-of-Body or All in the Mind?

(Dr. Sam Parnia's NDE research)

(September 22, 2005) BBC NEWS

Reports of OBEs and NDEs are often simply anecdotal, but the hospital environment allows Sam Parnia to monitor and compare oxygen, carbon dioxide and salt levels in the patients who did and did not have either experience. His study also involves a novel method of testing if the "self" actually does leave the body during an OBE. Sam has suspended boards below the ceiling and these have images on the upper side. The idea is that if people do look down from above, they may recall the extra information. As yet, no patients have reported seeing these images. Whether these phenomena are visions of a dying brain or paranormal activity, Dr Parnia says science needs to offer an explanation of what happens when we die. "I think that NDEs hold the key to finally solving this mystery. In studying them further we will be able to discover the true nature of the relationship between the mind and the brain and answer the wider questions regarding the existence of an afterlife." A Tunnel Back to Life

(Patrick Tierney's NDE)

(October 30, 2005) UOL

I felt a pinch in my chest and I found myself in a tunnel, what seemed to be a tunnel. I walked or floated down the tunnel until I came to ... two more tunnels. One was very bright and the other one was black. So I took the one on the right, which was light, and suddenly appeared before a picket fence, similar to the fences you'd find around the old railway stations ... I was looking out on an area which was multi-coloured. The colours were beautiful. I can't describe them. The only way I could describe them - it was a very, very beautiful garden. What seemed a few seconds, my parents appeared from the side, were standing in front of me, smiling. My mother-in-law, she joined them. They're all smiling and I

Blessing in Disguise
